INSIGHT TIMER PLAYLIST FEATURES VIRTUAL MEDITATION ON THE LAWN

Mindful Moments for Spring Break and Beyond!

Tune-in to one of more than 40 brief, 5-15 minute meditations led by UVA community members. These recordings of the live Virtual Meditation on the Lawn sessions are suitable for listening to at any point in the day. Meditations cover diverse themes including cultivating joy, connecting with your body, relaxing into the present moment, reflecting on hope, and practicing true presence. Each meditation is facilitated by a UVA community leader including administrators, faculty, medical professionals, and contemplative instructors. Recordings can be accessed from the app's CSC page or from CSC's website. New recordings are uploaded to Insight Timer weekly. VIEW THE PLAYLIST.

NEW BOOK!

Next Up: A Classic Yoga Text
John Bultman leads the discussion of the second book featured in our (virtual) Spring Yoga Book Club, Hatha (Yoga) Pradipika. The work is an important fifteenth-century yoga text, authored by Svātmārāma and translated by Brian Dana Akers. Anyone interested in learning more about the history of yoga is invited to join at any point during the semester! LEARN MORE.

Building Students’ Capacities for Awareness, Connection, and Care

UVA’s Pia Adler used the Insight Timer app to introduce short, guided meditations and relaxation exercises to her students. She was introduced to the idea at the Contemplative Institute for Teaching and Learning, sponsored by CSC and the Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE). READ THE BLOG.
